Title of Reading Selection:

Response

Direction: Write a one-paragraph (approximately 10 sentences) response to the reading selection. It should include your reaction to the author's thesis, and assessment of author's achievement of the text's purpose, clarity, and objectivity.

The article "Student Perceptions of ChatGPT Use in a College Essay Assignment: Implications for Learning, Grading, and Trust in Artificial Intelligence." achieved its purpose of finding out the perception of students using Generative AI like ChatGPT. The authors of the article achieved this thru their procedure of having participants answer a college essay while requiring the use of ChatGPT and giving their thoughts about it before using it, and after using it. It supports the research questions mentioned in the article being what's the student's perspective when using AI and how it helps in their studies, the result being students found it as a collaborative tool for writing that can help in the long term. The authors are neutral in terms of objectivity, as it targets the audience of students, teachers, AI developers, and future researchers very clearly. The writers use clear and concise wordings for everyone to understand the messages of the text. Casual readers can identify the text and won't feel lost while at the same time professionals have clear ideas about the technical terms mentioned in the text. Overall, this article clearly stated its purpose, its assessment, and its result.
